

Membership brings with it professional recognition and a wide range of support services that will aid your development throughout your working life

The IRRV is the largest professional institution operating in the field of revenues, benefits and valuation. Every year hundreds of students sit IRRV examinations. Those who are successful will join the thousands of IRRV-qualified professionals currently working in local authorities and public and private sector valuation.

Member Perspective:

"I have always been proud to use my post nominal letters both as 'Tech IRRV' and 'IRRV (Hons)' as this shows others that I am a professional who is well trained and knowledgeable about my area of work."

Julie Holden IRRV (Hons)
National President 2008/09 and Head of Revenues and Benefits, Tandridge DC

Benefits of Membership

Information services:

The Institute keeps its members informed of current issues and provides opportunities for further professional and personal development and the sharing of best practice.

Member website:

Full access to the Members' Area with its CPD portal and specialist magazine library.

Career development:

From starting out to gaining promotions, taking a career break or changing direction and planning for retirement, membership ensures that you are part of a thriving support network.

CPD:

Use the interactive online Continuing Professional Development (CPD) system to plan and monitor your learning and development.

Branches and Networks:

The Institute's associations are active throughout the UK. The Associations organise programmes of professional and social activities that take place regionally and provide the opportunity for members to become more involved in the work of the Institute.

Journals:

Members receive our own magazine, Insight, packed with interesting features and faculty review included, news, book reviews and letters. Additionally Valuer members receive the Valuer quarterly faculty journals.

Certificate:

Technician, Diploma and Honours Members receive a certificate of membership.

Faculties:

Benefits, Revenues and Valuation faculties provide specialised support for practitioners working in these fields.

Technical Queries:

Members receive access to the Technical Query Service.

Post Nominal Letters:

Membership gives you the opportunity to gain professional recognition within your industry through post nominal letters ('Tech IRRV' for Technician Members, 'IRRV (Dip)' for Diploma Members and 'IRRV (Hons)' for Honours Members). Only Current Members are eligible to quote these letters.

Member Events:

Association events provide invaluable opportunities to meet like-minded and influential people. Additionally, the IRRV provides high quality conferences and professional meetings for people involved in local government taxation, benefits and public and private sector valuation.

Member Directory:

Members are included in the popular Member Directory.

Additional Benefits:

We also offer a range of additional benefits including member discounts and a credit card.

www.irrv.org.uk/membership

Join thousands of IRRV qualified members working in Revenues and Benefits and Public and Private sector valuation. Download membership forms at www.irrv.org.uk/membership.