

Membership brings with it professional recognition and a wide range of support services that will aid your development

The IRRV is the largest professional institution operating in the field of revenues, benefits and valuation. Every year, hundreds of students sit IRRV examinations. Those who are successful will join the thousands of IRRV-qualified professionals currently working in local authorities and public and private sector valuation.

Member Perspective:

"I have always been proud to use my post nominal letters 'IRRV (Hons)' this shows others that I am a professional who is well trained and knowledgeable about my area of work."

Kerry Macdermott IRRV (Hons)
National President 2010/11 and Head of Revenue Services Pembrokeshire CC

Benefits of Membership

Post Nominal Letters:

Membership gives you the opportunity to gain professional recognition within your industry through post nominal letters: 'FIRRV' for Fellow members, 'IRRV' (Hons) for Honours Members, 'IRRV (Dip)' for Diploma Members, 'IRRV' for Corporate Members and 'Tech IRRV' for Technician Members.

[Note only current members of the Institute are eligible to quote these letters].

Journals:

Members receive our own magazine, Insight, packed with interesting features, faculty reviews, current news, book reviews and letters. Additionally, Valuer members receive their own quarterly journal 'Valuer'. The magazines are available either electronically or in hard copy.

Conferences and Professional meetings

The IRRV provides high quality conferences and professional meetings for people involved in local government taxation, benefits and public and private sector valuation. Members receive discounts at all events.

Faculties:

Benefits, Revenues and Valuation faculties provide specialised support for practitioners working in their respective fields.

Associations and Networks:

The Institute's associations are active throughout the UK. The associations organise programmes of professional and social activities that take place regionally and provide the opportunity for members to become more involved in the work of the Institute at a local level.

Member Directory: Members are included in the Member Directory which is published annually.

Member Website:

Full access to the Members' Area with its CPD portal and specialist magazine library.

Technical Enquiry Service:

Members receive access to the Technical Enquiry Service.

CPD:

Use the interactive online Continuing Professional Development (CPD) system to plan and monitor your learning and development.

Information Services:

The Institute keeps its members informed of current issues and provides opportunities for further professional and personal development and the sharing of best practice.
